

DID YOU SAY
YOU WANTED
MORE PROGRAMS
FOR YOUR ATARI[®]
HOME COMPUTER?

Now you can have them... with APX software

APX software is a collection of consumer written programs available now where ATARI[®] Home Computer products are sold.

Written by ATARI Computer users for ATARI Computer users, there are over 150 titles ranging from games for everyone's enjoyment to special interest programs, with new titles featured in the APX quarterly catalog.

Attractively packaged, with many available on both cassette and diskette, APX programs span a broad spectrum of subjects and interests.*

To maintain consistently high program quality, every APX program has been screened by the APX Software Review Board. Some APX programs like Caverns of Mars[™] and My First Alphabet[™] have proven to be so popular that they have been incorporated into the regular ATARI Home Computer product line.

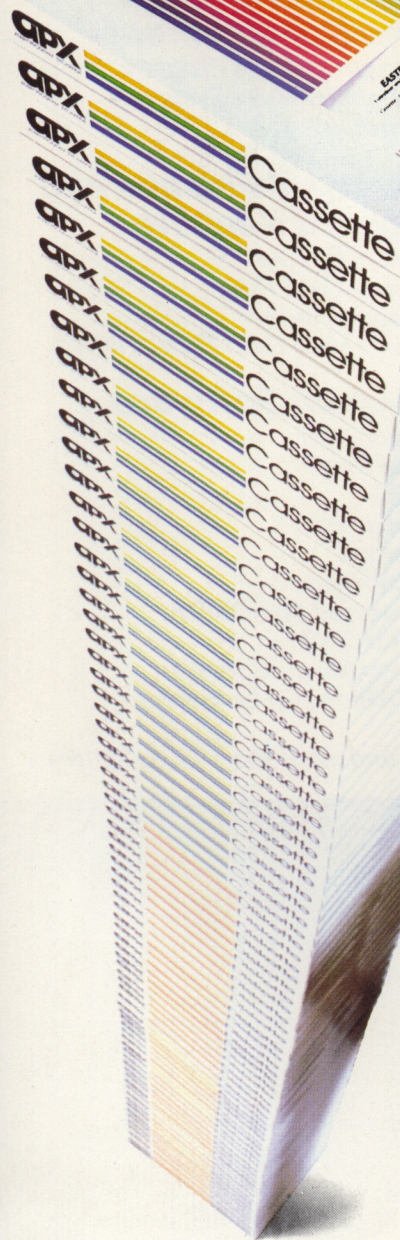

Did you say you wanted more programs for your ATARI Home Computer? Well, now you can have them... with APX.
